

Lamoille Valley Data Snapshot

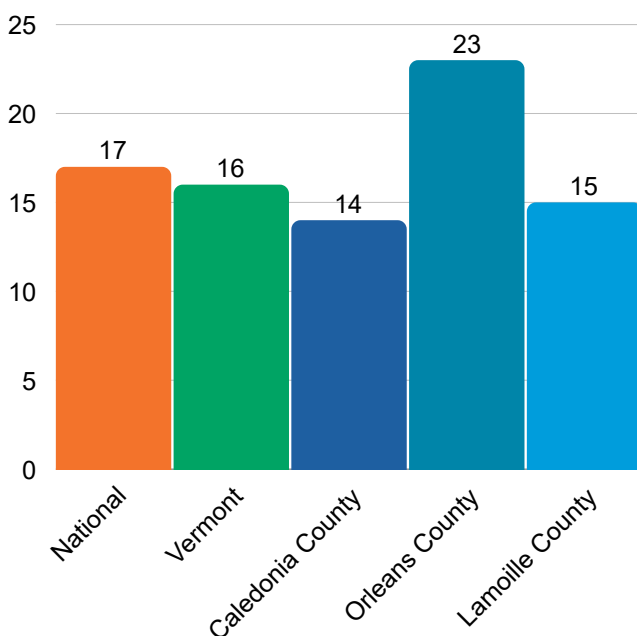

Percent of High School Students
Currently Using Alcohol

Percent of High School Students
Currently Using Cannabis

Percent of High School Students
Currently Using Vape Devices

Illicit Drug Use

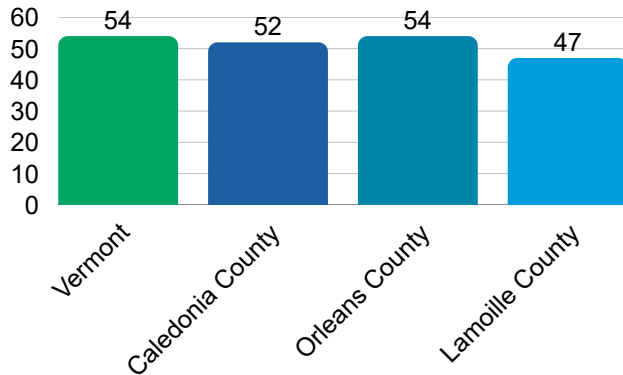

Less than 10% of Vermont high school students report using any illicit drugs other than cannabis, same as national rate.

Prescription Drug Misuse

9% of Vermont high school students report ever using a prescription pain medicine such as codeine, Vicodin, OxyContin, hydrocodone, and Percocet without a doctor's prescription or different from how a doctor told them to use it, more than 2% lower than national rates.

Community Factors

Percent of High School Students Who Don't Think They Matter to People in Their Community

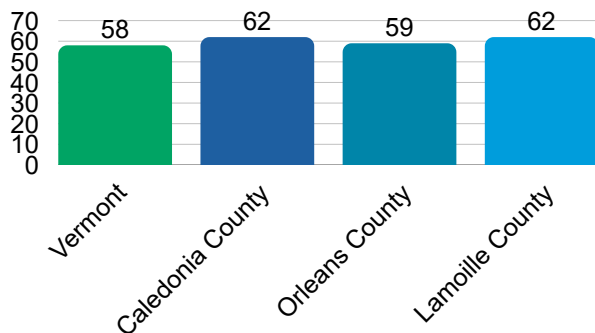

Source: 2023 Youth Risk Behavior Survey

Supportive Adults Can Help
77% of Lamoille Valley High School Students said they had at least one teacher or other adult in their school they could talk to if they had a problem.

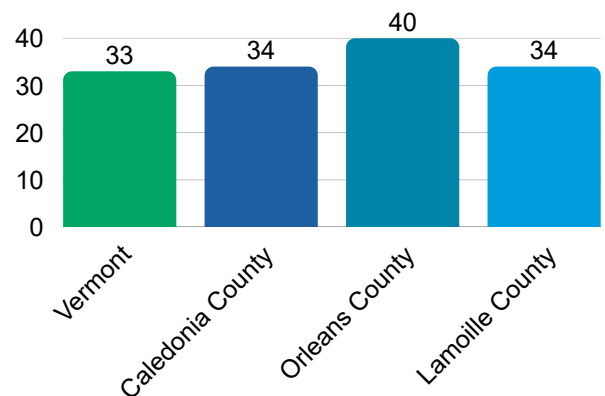

Source: HLV Core Measures Survey 2024

Percent of High School Students Who Think that Cannabis is Easy to Get in the Community

Source: VT 2023 Youth Risk Behavior Survey

Percent of High School Students Who Think Their Parents or Guardians Don't Feel it Would be Wrong for Them to Drink Alcohol

Source: VT 2023 Youth Risk Behavior Survey

Presence of Cannabis in the Community

81% of Lamoille Valley Parents have seen or smelled cannabis in public outdoor spaces or at community events in the last year.

Source: 2025 HLV Parent Survey

How Easy is it to Get Alcohol?

68% of Lamoille Valley High School students think alcohol would be easy for them to get in the community.

Source: 2023 VT Youth Risk Behavior Survey

Connect for Action with Healthy Lamoille Valley!

Together We Can Change these Numbers!

www.healthylamoillevalley.org